It is very easy to reach the hotel by means of public transport. Trains to Amsterdam Central run very frequently from Schiphol Airport. Usually from platform 1 or 2. From the central station you take tram 9 (direction Diemen Sniep) and get off at the stop called Artis (the Zoo). The tram takes about 20 minutes. The hotel is very close to the tram stop just down the street.

You could also choose to take a taxi from Schiphol directly to the hotel. However please be aware that taxi's in the Netherlands are quite expensive. In front of the arrivals hall at Schiphol Airport you will find a taxi rank.
